Subject Index—Volume 9, 1985

A

Abscess
splenic abscess (Gadacz), 410

Accessory Spleens
accessory spleens: clinical significance with particular reference to the recurrence of idiopathic thrombocytopenic purpura (ITP) (Rudowski), 422

Adaptation
postoperative adaptation of the small intestine (Bristol and Williamson), 825

Adenoma
enteric adenoma and adenocarcinoma (Cooper and Williamson), 914

Aneurysm
rare late complication after operation of traumatic aneurysm of the thoracic aorta (Heberer et al.), 367
splenic artery aneurysms (Trastek et al.), 378

Aorta
rare late complication after operation of traumatic aneurysm of the thoracic aorta (Heberer et al.), 367
dehiscence of a prosthetic graft nineteen years after coarctation repair (Snow), 371 total repair of annulo-aortic ectasia with composite graft and reimplantation of coronary ostia (Inberg et al.), 493

Appendicectomy
a comparison of the prophylactic value of cefotetan and metronidazole in appendicectomy (Buckels et al.), 814

B

Biliary Atresia
progress in the treatment of biliary atresia (Ohi et al.), 285

Blood
reduction of blood trauma in roller pumps for long-term perfusion (Noon et al.), 65

Breast Carcinoma
the revolution in breast cancer surgery: science or anecdotalism? (Fisher), 655 role of radiotherapy following total mastectomy for patients with early breast cancer (Berstock et al.), 667
mastectomy vs. radiotherapy as treatment for stage I-II breast cancer: a prospective randomized trial at the National Cancer Institute (Findlay et al.), 671
conservative treatment of breast cancer with the QU.A.RT. technique (Veronesi et al.), 676
limited surgical management for primary breast cancer: a commentary on the NSABP reports (Fisher and Wolmark), 682 lumpectomy and axillary dissection for breast cancer: surgical, pathological and radiation considerations (Fisher et al.), 692
adjuvant chemotherapy in stage II breast cancer: a brief overview of the NSABP clinical trials (Wolmark and Fisher), 699
adjuvant CMF chemotherapy in operable breast cancer: ten years later (Bonadonna et al.), 707
a randomized trial of CMF vs. CMFVP as adjuvant chemotherapy in women with node-positive stage II breast cancer: a CALGB study (Wood et al.), 714 adjuvant chemotherapy for operable breast cancer with positive axillary nodes: a comparison of CMFVP vs. L-PAM (Rivkin et al.), 719
adjuvant therapy for breast cancer with positive axillary nodes designed according to estrogen receptor status (Rivkin et al.), 723
adjuvant chemotherapy in postmenopausal women: results of sequential noncross-resistant regimens (Brambilla et al.), 728
eight-year follow-up of adjuvant therapy for stage II breast cancer (Hubay et al.), 738
adjuvant tamoxifen and chemotherapy in stage II breast cancer: interim findings from NSABP protocol B-09 (Wolmark and Fisher), 750
six-year results of a controlled trial of tamoxifen as single adjuvant agent in management of early breast cancer (Wilson et al.), 756
anti-estrogen treatment of postmenopausal breast cancer patients with high risk of recurrence: 72 months of life-table analysis and steroid hormone receptor status (Rose et al.), 765 management of nonmetastatic locally advanced breast cancer using primary induction chemotherapy with hormonal synchronization followed by radiation therapy with or without debulking surgery (Sorace et al.), 775

Carcinoid Tumors
small bowel carcinoid tumors (Woods et al.), 921

Carcinoma
enteric adenoma and adenocarcinoma (Cooper and Williamson), 914
long-term surgical results of carcinoma of the gastric remnant: a statistical analysis of 613 patients from 98 institutions (Kidokoro et al.), 966

Centrifugal Pump
use of a centrifugal pump without anticoagulants for postoperative left ventricular assist (Magovern et al.), 25

Chemotherapy
adjuvant chemotherapy in stage II breast cancer: a brief overview of the NSABP clinical trials (Wolmark and Fisher), 699
adjuvant CMF chemotherapy in operable breast cancer: ten years later (Bonadonna et al.), 707
a randomized trial of CMF vs. CMFVP as adjuvant chemotherapy in women with node-positive stage II breast cancer: a CALGB study (Wood et al.), 714 adjuvant chemotherapy for operable breast cancer with positive axillary nodes: a comparison of CMFVP vs. L-PAM (Rivkin et al.), 719
adjuvant therapy for breast cancer with positive axillary nodes designed according to estrogen receptor status (Rivkin et al.), 723
adjuvant chemotherapy in postmenopausal women: results of sequential noncross-resistant regimens (Brambilla et al.), 728
eight-year follow-up of adjuvant therapy for stage II breast cancer (Hubay et al.), 738
adjuvant tamoxifen and chemotherapy in stage II breast cancer: interim findings from NSABP protocol B-09 (Wolmark and Fisher), 750
management of nonmetastatic locally advanced breast cancer using primary induction chemotherapy with hormonal synchronization followed by radiation therapy with or without debulking surgery (Sorace et al.), 775

Choledochal Cyst
choledochal cyst (Cheney et al.), 244

Cholelithiasis is choledochoduodenostomy in the treatment of stones in the common bile duct an obsolete technique? (Cubillos et al.), 484

Congenital Heart Surgery
symposium: progress in the surgical management of congenital heart surgery (Senning), 515 repair of ventricular septal defects (Doty and Lamberth), 516 obstructions to left ventricular outflow (Weldon), 522 anomalies of pulmonary venous return (Stark), 532 coarctation of the aorta: current surgical management (Campbell et al.), 543 conduction tissue in congenital heart surgery (Ho and Anderson), 550 valve replacement in children (Elliott and de Leval), 568 surgical management of double inlet ventricle (Pacifico et al.), 579 repair of complete atrioventricular canal in infancy (Castaneda et al.), 590 Continent Ileostomy

the continent ileostomy (Kock's pouch) versus the restorative proctocolectomy (pelvic pouch) (Hultén), 952
Crohn's Disease
conservative operations for Crohn's disease of the small bowel (Alexander-Williams and Haynes), 945

Delayed Type Hypersensitivity
two techniques of measurement of the delayed type hypersensitivity skin test response for the assessment of bacterial host resistance (Christou et al.), 798

Embolization
partial splenic embolization: experience in 136 patients (Jonasson et al.), 461 Enteral and Parenteral Nutrition enteral and parenteral nutrition in the short bowel syndrome in children (Ricour et al.), 310
Esophagus
present status of surgical treatment of esophageal varices in Japan: a nationwide survey of 3,588 patients (Inokuchi), 171 esophageal atresia: embryogenesis and management (de Lorimier and Harrison), 250 surgery of gastroesophageal reflux (Carcassonne et al.), 269
emergent and therapeutic upper gastrointestinal endoscopy in children (Van Stiegmann and Stellin), 294
Estrogen Receptor adjuvant therapy for breast cancer with positive axillary nodes designed according to estrogen receptor status (Rivkin et al.), 723

F Fibrinkleber
surgical treatment of liver injuries by application of Fibrinkleber (Giakoustidis et al.), 144

G Gallbladder
the cost-effectiveness of early or delayed surgery in acute cholecystitis (Alinder et al.), 329 Gastroesophageal Reflux
surgery of gastroesophageal reflux (Carcassonne et al.), 269
Gastrointestinal Endoscopy
emergent and therapeutic upper gastrointestinal endoscopy in children (Van Stiegmann and Stellin), 294

H Heart; Failure
symposium: surgical management of the failing ventricle: present techniques and future promise (Pierce), 1 inotropic agents in the treatment of cardiogenic shock (Mueller), 3 experimental and clinical results with a simplified left heart assist device for treatment of profound left ventricular dysfunction (Rose et al.), 11
a decade of experience with a left heart assist device in patients undergoing open intracardiac operation (Litwak et al.), 18
use of a centrifugal pump without anticoagulants for postoperative left ventricular assist (Magovern et al.), 25
experience with the Pierce-Donachy ventricular assist device in postcardiotomy patients with cardiogenic shock (Pennington et al.), 37
the Pennsylvania State University paracorporeal ventricular assist pump: optimal methods of use (Gaines et al.), 47 temporary and permanent left ventricular bypass: laboratory and clinical observations (Bernhard et al.), 54
reduction of blood trauma in roller pumps for long-term perfusion (Noon et al.), 65
evaluation of surface-bound heparin and platelet inhibition in a centrifugal pump left ventricular assist system (Musial), 72
successful treatment of profound left ventricular failure by automatic left ventricular assist system (Takano et al.), 78
right heart interaction with the mechanically assisted left heart (Farrar et al.), 89
status of the artificial heart program in Berlin (Bücherl et al.), 103 experimental results and future prospects for a nonpulsatile cardiac prosthesis (Yozu et al.), 116 Hepaticojejunostomy
hepaticojejunostomy using the left biliary trunk for iatrogenic biliary lesions: the French connection (Hepp), 507
Hirschsprung's Disease
Hirschsprung's disease: progress in management and diagnostics (Nixon), 189
Hodgkin's Disease
staging laparotomy with splenectomy for Hodgkin's disease: the Stanford experience (Taylor et al.), 449 Hormonal Therapy
adjuvant tamoxifen and chemotherapy in stage II breast cancer: interim findings from NSABP protocol B-09 (Wolmark and Fisher), 750
six-year results of a controlled trial of tamoxifen as single adjuvant agent in management of early breast cancer (Wilson et al.), 756
anti-estrogen treatment of postmenopausal breast cancer patients with high risk of recurrence: 72 months of life-table analysis and steroid hormone receptor status (Rose et al.), 765 management of nonmetastatic locally advanced breast cancer using primary induction chemotherapy with hormonal synchronization followed by radiation therapy with or without debulking surgery (Sorace et al.), 775

I Idiopathic Thrombocytopenic Purpura
accessory spleens: clinical significance with particular reference to the recurrence of idiopathic thrombocytopenic purpura (ITP) (Rudowski), 422
Imperforate Anus
surgical treatment of high imperforate anus (Peña), 236
Islets
reinnervation of the endocrine pancreas after autotransplantation of pancreatic fragments in the spleen of the dog: a morphofunctional study (Madureira et al.), 335

K Kock's Pouch
the continent ileostomy (Kock's pouch) versus the restorative proctocolectomy (pelvic pouch) (Hultén), 952

Left Heart Assist Device
- experimental and clinical results with a simplified left heart assist device for treatment of profound left ventricular dysfunction (Rose et al.), 11
- a decade of experience with a left heart assist device in patients undergoing open intracardiac operation (Litwak et al.), 18
- use of a centrifugal pump without anticoagulants for postoperative left ventricular assist (Magovern et al.), 25
- experience with the Pierce-Donachy ventricular assist device in postcardiotomy patients with cardiogenic shock (Pennington et al.), 37

- evaluation of surface-bound heparin and platelet inhibition in a centrifugal pump left ventricular assist system (Musial), 72
- successful treatment of profound left ventricular failure by automatic left ventricular assist system (Takano et al.), 78
- right heart interaction with the mechanically assisted left heart (Farrar et al.), 89
- status of the artificial heart program in Berlin (Bücherl et al.), 103

Liver
- microwave surgery: hepatectomy using a microwave tissue coagulator (Tabuse et al.), 136
- surgical treatment of liver injuries by application of Fibrinkleber (Giakoustidis et al.), 144
- present status of surgical treatment of esophageal varices in Japan: a nationwide survey of 3,588 patients (Inokuchi), 171
- hepaticojejunostomy using the left biliary trunk for iatrogenic biliary lesions: the French connection (Hepp), 507

Lymphoma
- splenectomy for malignant lymphomas (Mitchell and Morris), 444
- small intestinal lymphoma (Cooper and Read), 930

M

Mastectomy
- role of radiotherapy following total mastectomy for patients with early breast cancer (Berstock et al.), 667
- mastectomy vs. radiotherapy as treatment for stage I-II breast cancer: a prospective randomized trial at the National Cancer Institute (Findlay et al.), 671
- conservative treatment of breast cancer with the QU.A.RT. technique (Veronesi et al.), 676
- limited surgical management for primary breast cancer: a commentary on the NSABP reports (Fisher and Wolmark), 682

- adjuvant therapy for breast cancer with positive axillary nodes designed according to estrogen receptor status (Rivkin et al.), 723
- six-year results of a controlled trial of tamoxifen as single adjuvant agent in management of early breast cancer (Wilson et al.), 756
- anti-estrogen treatment of postmenopausal breast cancer patients with high risk of recurrence: 72 months of life-table analysis and steroid hormone receptor status (Rose et al.), 765

Microsurgery
- pediatric microsurgery (Diez Pardo), 300

Myeloproliferative Disorders
- splenectomy for myeloproliferative disorders (Wilson et al.), 431

Pancreas
- reinnervation of the endocrine pancreas after autotransplantation of pancreatic fragments in the spleen of the dog: a morphofunctional study (Madureira et al.), 335
- fine-needle biopsy of the pancreas: results of 204 routinely performed biopsies in 190 patients (Søreide et al.), 960

Pancreatitis
- results of surgical treatment of necrotizing pancreatitis (Beger et al.), 972

Parathyroid
